DETAILED ACTIONDouble Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

1. Claims 1 and 5 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 and 3 of U.S. Patent No. 6,557,970. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the scope of the claims of the present invention are the same as the scope of the claims of the co-pending application.

With regard to the limitations "a thermal bend actuator" of claim 1 of the present invention; although claim 1 of the US. Patent does not disclose the same limitation, however, the claim 1 of the US. Patent teaches "an actuator". Since the US. Patent teach the same structure as the present invention, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to using the same actuating mechanism in order eject the ink.

2. Claim 6 is rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 and 3 of U.S. Patent No. 6,557,970 in view of Hirano et al (USPN 6,120,130).

The claims of Patent 6,557,970 fails to teach the wafer substrate is a silicon substrate.

Hirano teaches the wafer substrate is a silicon substrate (Column 34: line 1-5).

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have a silicon substrate as taught by Hirano. The motivation of doing so is to obtain a high thermal conductivity.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claim 4 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim 4 is allowable over prior art of record because at least the prior art have not discloses the nozzle guard further comprising a plurality of struts which support the cover member in spaced relationship with the nozzles.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
